AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

It is ordered that the defendant pay to the United States a special assessment of $200.00, which is due immediately.

Under the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: 120 months, as to Counts 1 and 2, said terms to be served concurrently with each other. Upon release from imprisonment, defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 5 years as to Counts 1 and 2, said terms to be served concurrently with each other under the following terms & conditions: 1. Comply with the rules & regulations of the U.S. Probation Office & General Order 318; 2. Defendant shall participate in outpatient substance abuse treatment and submit to drug & alcohol testing, as instructed by the probation officer. Defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs, alcohol & abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision; 3. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling & testing to determine if defendant has reverted to the use of drugs & defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director & Probation Officer; 4. Defendant shall participate in mental health treatment which may include evaluation & counseling until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider with the approval of the Probation Officer; 5. As directed by the Probation Officer, defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating defendant's drug & alcohol dependency & psychiatric disorder to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 USC §3672. Defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer; 6. During the period of community supervision defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment; 7. When not employed at least part-time and/or enrolled in an educational or vocational program, defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Officer; 8. Defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name other than the defendant's true legal name, without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer nor shall defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his true legal name; 9. Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

Court recommends that the defendant be housed at a facility in Southern California to facilitate visitation with his mother, wife and three minor children, and recommends that the defendant be allowed to participate in the 500 hour drug treatment program if eligible.

Defendant is advised of his appeal rights.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below).

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

While the defendant is on probation or supervised release pursuant to this judgment:

1. The defendant shall not commit another Federal, state or local crime;
2. the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the written permission of the court or probation officer;
3. the defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
4. the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
5. the defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities;
6. the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons;
7. the defendant shall notify the probation officer at least 10 days prior to any change in residence or employment;
8. the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician;
9. the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed or administered;
10. the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;
11. the defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any time at home or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer;
12. the defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer;
13. the defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informer or a special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court;
14. as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to conform the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement;
15. the defendant shall, upon release from any period of custody, report to the probation officer within 72 hours;
16. and, for felony cases only: not possess a firearm, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.

The defendant will also comply with the following special conditions pursuant to General Order 01-05 (set forth below).

STATUTORY PROVISIONS PERTAINING TO PAYMENT AND COLLECTION OF FINANCIAL SANCTIONS

The defendant shall pay interest on a fine or restitution of more than $2,500, unless the court waives interest or unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth (15th) day after the date of the judgment pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(f)(1). Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3612(g). Interest and penalties pertaining to restitution, however, are not applicable for offenses completed prior to April 24, 1996.

If all or any portion of a fine or restitution ordered remains unpaid after the termination of supervision, the defendant shall pay the balance as directed by the United States Attorney's Office. 18 U.S.C. §3613.

The defendant shall notify the United States Attorney within thirty (30) days of any change in the defendant's mailing address or residence until all fines, restitution, costs, and special assessments are paid in full. 18 U.S.C. §3612(b)(1)(F).

The defendant shall notify the Court through the Probation Office, and notify the United States Attorney of any material change in the defendant's economic circumstances that might affect the defendant's ability to pay a fine or restitution, as required by 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). The Court may also accept such notification from the government or the victim, and may, on its own motion or that of a party or the victim, adjust the manner of payment of a fine or restitution-pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). See also 18 U.S.C. §3572(d)(3) and for probation 18 U.S.C. §3563(a)(7).

Payments shall be applied in the following order:

1. Special assessments pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3013;
2. Restitution, in this sequence:
 - Private victims (individual and corporate),
 - Providers of compensation to private victims,
 - The United States as victim;
3. Fine;
4. Community restitution, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3663(c); and
5. Other penalties and costs.
